

The Three Levels of Government in Canada

Cut out the cards below and sort them to show whether they are Federal, Provincial/Territorial, or Local/Municipal government responsibilities.

*Note: Some cards will fit into more than one category.

National defense	Provincial law and courts	Federal taxes	Indigenous relations
Fire protection	Emergency management	Social services (support for seniors, low income, disabled people)	Housing, infrastructure and communities
Children and family supports	Agriculture, farming, and food	Postal service	Police
Heritage and culture	Public transportation	Drivers' licensing and highways	Criminal law
Tourism	Fisheries and oceans	Animal control	Mental health
Veterans' affairs	Waste management	Natural resources	Foreign affairs and international trade
Local parks	Official languages	Property and civil rights	Colleges and universities
Currency	Provincial taxes	Citizenship	Recreation and community facilities
Education	Transport and port authorities	Land use planning (zoning)	Public safety and risk management
Services for Indigenous communities	Water supply and treatment	Environment	Hospitals and healthcare